GOVERNMENT OF INDIA
CIVIL AVIATION
LOK SABHA

UNSTARRED QUESTION NO:4701
ANSWERED ON:15.12.2016
Flying Training Institutes
Patel Shri Devji Mansingram;Singh Shri Uday Pratap

Will the Minister of CIVIL AVIATION be pleased to state:

(a) the details of public/private sector aviation/flying training schools/institutes in the country providing training related to all aspects of aviation including pilots, cabin crew, engineers, aviation security and ground handling, State/UT-wise;

(b) whether the Government proposes to set up more such institutes in view of increasing demand of aviation professionals in the country, if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether the Government has received applications/proposals for setting up of new training schools/institutes from public and private sector airlines;

(d) if so, the details thereof and the action taken by the Government on those proposals; and

(e) the funds allocated, released and spent on these institutes by the Government during the last three years and the current year, institute/year-wise?

Answer

Minister of State in the Ministry of CIVIL AVIATION

(Shri Jayant Sinha)

(a) There are 29 Flying Training Organizations approved by DGCA for conduct of flying training for issue of commercial pilot licence. The list is attached at Annexure - I.;
Presently, there are 50 Aircraft Maintenance Engineering (AME) training institute approved by DGCA for imparting of ab - initio AME training. The list is attached at Annexure -II.;
No ab initio institute for cabin crew is approved by the DGCA. However, DGCA has approved cabin crew training programme as per Civil Aviation Requirements (CAR) Section - 7, Series-M, Part - I of Organizations. The list is attached at Annexure III..;
There are six Type Rated Training Organizations (TRTO) in India for extension of aircraft type rating. The list is attached at Annexure - IV;
There are 19 Aviation Security Training Institutes. The list of the institutes is attached at Annexure - V.

(b) There is no such proposals as of now.;

(c) & (d) No Airline has so far applied for establishment of new training institute.;

(e) No funds has been allocated, released and spent on these institutes by the Government during the last three years or the current year.